OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrillfield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

MUSICAL.—The St. Albans Brigade Band, after giving another one of their delightful rehearsals in the park last evening, proceeded to make several of our townsmen face the music. Messrs. J. W. Hobart, Lawrence Bradner, Jr., John C. Farrar and Daniel Dutcher were among those called upon by the Serenaders. If blows are to be given, these are the kind.

A PLEASANT PLACE.—We mentioned some time ago that Abner Forbes, Esq., had purchased the residence of Stephen J. Sowles, Esq., on Ferris Avenue. Since purchasing Mr. Forbes has made repairs, alterations and additions, which constitute his residence one of the most convenient and pleasant in town. The addition of a piazza along the front gives grace to the whole appearance of the house, besides serving the ordinary use of such an addition. Tasteful in all things, Mr. Forbes has so improved his residence by the change made, as to increase its value greatly, and make of it a neat and handsome home.

Why is the Democratic party like a blind horse? Because it became prostrated in its efforts to see more.

J. M. FRASER has been appointed Station Agent at Georgia, vice Sherman, resigned.

HORATIO Seymour, "the right man in the right place." The papers have represented him predisposed to insanity, yet he is hardly so crazy as the party that nominated him expecting his election.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—J. G. T.—The name of the Blair family is, as you suppose, a corruption. It was originally written Brayer. The family is very ancient, dating as far back as Baalam, at least. It has degenerated since, and never meets an angel now.

FANNY.—Your poetry is too original for us. Don't send us any more written in warm weather. It won't keep.

JOHN JONES.—The Welden Spring is permanently located here. Water drinking has become popular here since its discovery, although there is no law against it.

CANADIAN.—The "mill" between the prize fighters you speak of was not the paper mill in this place, nor did the visit of O' Baldwin, the champion fighter, spoken of by our venerable cotemporary, have any connection with the progress of work upon it. It will go on just the same.

STUDENT.—You ask us if it is true that "Dido et dux"? Although your spelling is faulty, we, being no respecters of persons, answer you candidly; we presume she did. The ducks could not have been canvass backs, as the manufacture of canvass is of a more recent date.

RESPECT TO HIS MEMORY.—We learn from the Times that the members of the Chittenden County Bar met at the Court House in Burlington, Thursday forenoon, Judge Smalley presiding. Remarks of respect to the memory of Judge Bennett were made by Judge Smalley and Judge Wales, and a series of resolutions reported by a committee consisting of Hon. Daniel Roberts, Hon. L. B. Engleby, and Wm. G. Shaw, Esq., was adopted. The funeral of Judge Bennett took place at the White street church in the afternoon, when the resolutions were presented and remarks made by Hon. Daniel Roberts and Rev. J. H. Worcester, D. D.

THE NOMINATIONS.—The Democrats hereabouts were very long faces yesterday afternoon when they heard of the nominations made by the New York Convention. They could not get up any enthusiasm, and the big gun was not fired as there was talk of doing if Chase and Adams received the nominations. A Democratic friend said, "the ticket won't carry an omnibus load." We think our friend is too much discouraged. The ticket, however will be badly beaten.

BROWNED.—Luther Wood, of Essex Junction, a Wheelwright by occupation, while bathing with a brother in the Winooski river just below the Williston bridge, was drowned on Wednesday evening last. Diligent search has been made for his body, but at latest accounts it had not been recovered.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—John Moran, an insane person visiting in Burlington, attempted to cut his throat with a case knife, Wednesday afternoon. He was arrested by Constable Drew and lodged in jail. Upon the application of the Mayor, an inquisition of lunacy was held before Judge Wales, yesterday, in Moran's case, which has not yet been decided. His injuries were not serious, as the knife was a dull one.

STOWE was the only town in Lamoille County represented in the State Convention in Burlington.

"LEAVE OF ABSENCE" PLEDGE.—Every West Point Cadet must sign the following before he gets a day's leave of absence:

Upon the honor of a cadet and gentleman I certify that I have in no manner or way improperly interfered with or molested, harassed or injured new cadets, from my admission to the present time; and I do further pledge my honor that during my absence from the post of West Point I will abstain from all intoxicating liquors and every dissipation or excess for three days immediately following my departure from and preceding my return to the Academy.

We fear the West Pointers frequently disregard their certificate.

OVERCOME BY HEAT.—The Hyde Park News of Wednesday says:

The heat for the past week, has been intense, and we hear of a great many persons, all about, who have been overcome. Among these were W. C. Doane, Esq., Sheriff of the county, who on Friday last became so affected by the heat as to lose all use of his limbs for several hours. On the same day, we were informed by Sheriff Doane, H. A. Waterman, Esq., of Johnson, and three or four others were overcome as to fall from the effects of the heat. The sun during the day is perfectly scorching and the nights are "muggy." But the corn,—gracious, how it pulls up!

MR. EDGAR GARVIN and his helper of Fairfax, says the Montpelier Argus, sawed in one week 60,000 feet of lumber, with one of Lane's Mill, driven by a 40 inch Green Mountain Turbine water wheel which is about the best sawing on record. The mill is owned by Calvin and S. Garvin, and is situated about one mile from Fairfax village on the Mississippi river.

The most unhappy person in the world is the Dyspeptic. Everything looks dark and gloomy; he feels "out of sorts" with himself and everybody else. Life is a burden to him. This can all be changed by taking Peruvian Syrup (in protoxide of iron). Cases of 27 years standing have been cured by it.

Mischief that may be helped is hard to know," said Lord Brooke. But the mischief that time would work on the human hair may be forever avoided by the use of Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative, which never fails to bring back the hair to its original beauty.—Rochester Democrat.

Grand Isle County Republican Convention.

The Union Republican voters of Grand Isle County are requested to meet at the Court House in North Hero on Saturday, August 15, 1868, at 11 o'clock, A. M., to nominate a Senator and County Officers for the year ensuing.

H. H. REYNOLDS,
J. H. CHAMBERLIN, } Committee.
J. M. HAWKMAN,

Letter from New York.

NEW YORK, July 8.

The great excitement of the day center in politics. Everybody talks Convention, whether he be Democrat or whether he be Republican. Of the proceedings of the National Democratic Convention, up to date, you are of course, ere this informed by telegraph. As to the final action of the Convention, speculation is as wild as ever. Those inside appear to know, definitely, little more than those outside. All one can tell is that there is much planning, much wire-pulling, much campaigning, any amount of prophesying, several strong men each with a strong party at his back, etc. This morning Chase seems to be stronger than ever, and if the Convention sessions could be prolonged for several days, he could have no mean chance for the nomination. Perhaps he will succeed as it is. But 'tis useless to sum up the chances which Chase, or Pendleton, or Hancock, or Hendricks, or this or that man may have, or seem to have, for by the time this reaches you, the final result will probably be reached.

As I write, the Convention is assembling for its morning session, and the large hall presents an animated scene. The Herald is "poking fun" at this Convention, in all sorts of ways, even ridiculing its members as small potatoes, but despite all this rather ungrateful ridicule, there is a lady of men well worth looking in upon, even by its political foes. It is, of course, made up of such conventions as are of a great variety of men, and some may, as the Herald can believe, know more than others, and some probably less. Any man who doubts that there is a goodly quantity of brains here, or who doubts that some of the leaders of public political thought are here, please step into the Convention—if you can get a ticket, which may be a hard matter. A pretty cheap style of political warfare is that in which our political foe must inevitably be called a jackass or a knave.

Gloom settles down upon the Convention in the death of Peter Cagier, of Albany. He was riding home with John G. Devlin from a dinner at the Manhattan Club; the horses were frightened and ran away, throwing the gentleman from the carriage, instantly killing Mr. Cagier, and very seriously injuring Mr. Devlin. The latter may recover. The Tribune thus honorably treats a political foe: "Peter Cagier was an eminent lawyer (formerly of Hill, Porter and Cagier,) and had lived 53 years, for 30 of which he had been Secretary of the Democratic State Committee. Always declining office, he was the most untiring, and since the death of Dean Richmond, the most efficient political manager in the State. Frank, genial, social and warm-hearted, without a trace of ostentation or formality, he was eminently popular and had multitudes of personal friends in both of the great parties, to whom his death is a sudden blow. He was in our city as a delegate to the Democratic National Convention, in whose proceedings he took deep interest. He leaves a widow and several children to lament their irreparable loss."

The Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, after pledging support to the nominees of the National Democratic Convention, yesterday, adjourned sine die.

The Republicans are, of course, deeply interested in their State Convention at Syracuse. It seems that Horace Greeley really has strong chances for the nomination for Governor. There can be no doubt that his nomination would be received with enthusiasm by the rank and file of the party.

The labor market is still unsettled. The trouble between the master masons and their employees has not yet been satisfactorily adjusted.

The sporting world is quite dull just now. Once in a while they manage to get up a horse-race or a regatta, but all in all, take things rather quietly.

Through the season up to Friday last, the health of the city had been comparatively good. Since then we have had an intensely hot spell of weather and the mortality lists have rapidly increased. In the seven days ending at noon of Saturday, there were only 412 deaths in New York and 122 in Brooklyn, but in the succeeding three days, ending at noon of Tuesday, 245 deaths in this city, exclusive of those in the public institutions, were reported to the Board of Health, while there were nearly the same ratio of increase in mortality in the city of Brooklyn.

The thermometer, luckily, has gone down a bit, but still we have very hot and very sultry weather. Yesterday the mercury climbed up to 81 at 3 o'clock p. m.

The association for the suppression of Gambling is gaining a new lease of life. Forty-one clerks who visit gaming houses were reported to their employers in June, and 47 new members were received. The association has a big job on hand in the suppressing of the gaming propensities of certain of our citizens and some who are not our citizens but who visit here generally, but it seems to be making some progress in its work.

The great National Fair, for the benefit of the destitute of the widows and mothers of those who have fallen in the land and naval service of the nation, will open here on the 14th of September. The wives and daughters of some of our most distinguished citizens are making extensive preparations for it.

The exodus of our fashionable people from this city into supposed cooler regions is assuming large proportions under the stimulus of the intense heat. When the Conventions all adjourn and all our political cousins leave us, the rest of us will probably depart, or at least put up the shutters.

NEW YORK, July 10.

The Herald says the Democratic party has decided that the next President shall be Grant. Seymour against Grant amounts to a Democratic surrender or a disbanding of the Democratic party.

The Times says the Democratic ticket will not bring out even a full vote, will disgust the non-partisan element, and nothing but a series of miracles can save the party from defeat.

The Tribune after recounting the former political course of Seymour says: If this man can be chosen for President over Grant then the patriotic blood shed in the war was shed in vain.

The World says that Seymour is the first statesman in the Democratic party, possesses personal qualifications and accomplishments which befit him for the magistracy of a great nation, has a strong grasp of the questions relating to the shattered state of the country, and his election will establish confidence at home and abroad in the financial honor of the country.

The Sun says Seymour is an eminent exponent of the Democratic party but does not think Blair will add to the success of the ticket.

THIRD ANNUAL TOUR
—OF THIS—
GREAT METROPOLITAN INSTITUTION

Permanently established during the greater portion of the year in a splendid Iron Edifice in the City of New York, which is well known throughout the country as the

Leading Circus of America

And which, the present season, with its

NEW AND MAGNIFICENT FEATURES,

Never before presented in America, will be enabled to offer entertainments of marked originality and exciting interest, far surpassing anything hitherto witnessed on this side of the Atlantic. The public appreciation of the performances given by the New York Circus, not only to the City of New York, but also during its former summer excursions, has stimulated the management to renewed exertions, and it is confidently asserted as beyond the power of contradiction, not only that the refinements of the Troupe during its present tour will be found superior to any ever given in this country.

But that the company is in all respects THE BEST IN THE WORLD! There being no Equestrian establishment in all Europe capable of surpassing many first-class artists, or so many entirely novel and strikingly effective specialties as this. First season in America of THE CAROLINE ROLLAND, the Phenomenal Equestrienne, who surpasses the most daring feats accomplished by other lady riders on a pad, upon a horse without saddle or bridle! This extraordinary article was engaged in England at enormous expense by an agent sent thither for the purpose of securing the best lady rider in Europe, and only arrived in this country in April. Her astounding performance upon a Bare-Back Steed, threw into the shade all previous displays of female Equestrianism seen in the United States and cannot be paralleled in any exhibition in Europe or America. Included in the brilliant array of

World Renowned Artists

Attached to the New York Circus will be found the names of Robert Stickney, the Great American Bare-Back Rider; the Couard Brothers, Champion Gymnasts of the World; William Jackson, the intrepid Somersault Rider, with his infant son, Arthur; the Bonhairs Family, who have no equals in any country in the classic School of Gymnastics; El Nino Eddie, the Boy Wonder, who although a mere child, surpasses Rhodin in difficult feats upon the Tight Rope; Herbert B. Williams, the greatest of English Clowns, engaged in London expressly for the present traveling season, together with the greatest force of Daring Bare-Back Riders, Accomplished Acrobats, Classic Gymnasts, Couard Clowns, Sharp Rope Twirlers, Foot and Hand Balancers, Equilibristes, Voltigeurs, Trapeze and Pantomimes. Ever brought together in this country, involving a greater expenditure for salaries than is incurred by any four traveling companies, and embracing some first-class Artists than can be found in any Circus in the World. First season in America of Couard's

TROUPE OF PERFORMING DOGS!

From London and Paris. The largest and best kind of beautiful and highly trained

PERFORMING HORSES AND PONIES

And the most brilliant equestrian, trappings and appointments to be found in Europe or America. The program of performances arranged for the present season will be distinguished by novelty, variety and sterling merit, including many entirely new acts, never before given in this country, with others that are original with and peculiar to the New York Circus, and can be witnessed in no other establishments all the vast resources of this magnificently appointed establishment will be combined to furnish a display of Dashing Horsemanship and Classic Olympic Games!

Which for Novelty, Variety Elegance and exciting interest will be found infinitely superior to anything of the kind hitherto witnessed in America.

The Entire Mammoth Troupe

From the New York Circus, in Fourteenth Street, New York, will appear at every performance.

Prof. Charles Boswood's Opera Band,

From New York, accompanies the Troupe. This company travels entirely by railroad, on special trains chartered for the purpose, and consequently the performers and horses come into the arena fresh and active, instead of being jaded and worn down by wearisome night travel over rough roads.

No Catchpenny Side Shows

Are allowed with this Establishment.

Admission 50 Cents. Children under 10 years, 25 cents. No standing room. Seats for all. For ticket and 7. Grand Entrance at 2 and 7 P. M.

See Tickets for sale at

E. H. HUNTINGTON'S Jewelry Store.

The New York Circus Will be at Waterbury July 25th, at Richmond July 25th, at Burlington July 28th.

At the present time there is much competition among Life Insurance Companies, and many agents are far too regardless of the truth, in statements when soliciting for risks, hence it is all important for persons intending to insure their lives, to insure only with agents whom they know to be reliable, again it is always most satisfactory for parties assured to have their risks with Local agents, then there is no difficulty or danger of loss in transmitting premiums. Persons intending to insure their lives will find it for their advantage to see the agent of the Guardian Mutual before insuring elsewhere.
